

REGIONAL GERIATRIC PROGRAM CENTRAL MONTHLY NEWSLETTER

EDUCATION

- Registration is open for the spring offering (Mar 9-30, 2021) of the Geriatric Training Program Online. To register: <https://rgpc.ca/events/geriatric-training-program-online-7/>
- Mark your calendars for the 11th Annual Geriatric Training Program on Sept 23 & 24, 2021 and the 11th Annual Update in Geriatrics: Tackling Red Flags on Nov 17, 2021. Both will be virtual events!
- The Geriatric Certificate Program is hosting a virtual information session on Wed, Mar 3rd from 12:30-1:30pm. To register: <https://rgpc.ca/events/geriatric-certificate-program-virtual-information-session/>.
- LIVE WELL AT HOME live education sessions are being offered virtually for older adults by the YMCA of Hamilton, Burlington, and Brantford in partnership with the GERAS Centre, McMaster University and Hamilton Health Sciences. For more information and to register: <https://www.ymcahbb.ca/YMCA-Reopening-Strategy/Health.-Fitness-Aquatics/LiveWell-at-Home-Live>.

FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

- Applications are being accepted for the "Seniors Community Development Investment for Communities Experiencing Barriers to Care." For more information and to apply: <https://rgpc.ca/seniors-community-development-investment/>. Up to $20,000 will be awarded.

RESOURCES

- Check out the new podcast "The Waiting Room Revolution," hosted by Dr. Hsien Seow, health care researcher, and Dr. Samantha Winemaker, palliative care physician to learn about unlocking the keys to a better illness experience: <https://www.waitingroomrevolution.com/>.